THE HERALD (Newcastle) 26/03/08

"...invites the pouring of a second glass, so it's best to enjoy this clinker fortified at home in your favourite armchair. Exudes scents of rich fruitcake and hazelnuts. Succulent raisin flavours hold sway on the front of the palate and elements of bramble jelly, cinnamon, cloves and nutty oak chime in on the middle palate. Lingering lush fruit characters, minty tannins and a whisper of flinty acid combine at the finish. It would be great with a King Island cheese plate with dried muscatels, quince paste and poppy seed lavosh.
